The JAMES JOYCE BROADSHEET is a specialist review published three times a year - since 1980 - featuring:

ESSAYS on selected aspects of Joyce’s works or Joycean criticism.

BOOK REVIEWS of new publications concerned directly or indirectly with Joyce, as well as RETROSPECTIVE reassessments of selected areas of Joycean studies.

NEWS OF JOYCEAN EVENTS: films, performances, exhibitions, lectures, conferences and collections.

NOTES & QUERIES and LETTERS sections, allowing for debate and exchange of information among readers, researches and teachers of Joyce’s works.

SUBSCRIPTIONS run for a calendar year. Rates for 2014 are:

UK & Europe: £9.00 (individuals); £12.00 (institutions)
USA & Elsewhere: £12.00/$24.00 (individuals); £15.00/$30.00 (institutions)

For members of the International James Joyce Foundation, annual subscriptions (from 16 June) are available at the following discounted rates:

UK & Europe: £16.00 (individuals); £20.00 (institutions)
USA & Elsewhere: $20.00 (individuals); $24.00 (institutions)

ALL BROADSHEETS posted outside UK are sent by AIRMAIL.

ALL BACK ISSUES are available. Contact the editors.

ONLINE SUBSCRIPTION is available via PayPal at www.jamesjoycebroadsheet.co.uk

Please fill out the following form and post it with your subscription.

TITLE ........................................ NAME ........................................

ADDRESS .........................................................................................

...........................................................................................................

...........................................................................................................

...........................................................................................................

British sterling and American dollar cheques, or international money orders payable in sterling, should be made payable to the James Joyce Broadsheet and posted to the above address.