Directions by rail and road to the University Campus

By rail
Leeds Railway station connects with all major UK cities and has regular services to a large number of locations. The station has recently undergone massive redevelopment to improve facilities. For information on this and timetables visit the National Rail website: http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/

The campus is five minutes by taxi from the railway station. Alternatively, it is a pleasant twenty minute walk following the directions below:

Come out of the station into City square.
With the Queens Hotel behind you, walk straight by the Square up Park Row, past Mill Hill Unitarian Chapel on your right.
Continue up Park Row until the first major junction, The Headrow.
Cross The Headrow at the lights and walk up Cookridge Street, passing the Henry Moore Institute on the left and, further up on the right, the Roman Catholic Cathedral.
Cross the junction with Great George Street and continue walking to the top of Cookridge Street, (passing the Museum building), where it comes out on Woodhouse Lane.
Turn left and continue up Woodhouse Lane.
Follow this road up, passing Leeds Beckett on your left, and the Dry Dock boat pub on an island on your right.
Cross over the cross-roads, and continue up Woodhouse Lane on the right-hand side.
17 Blenheim Terrace is on the right-hand side, two doors away from Tesco.
