

MA/PG Dip interpreting: career paths

- MA in Conference Interpreting and Translation Studies (Bi-directional/2 Languages)
- PG Diploma in Conference Interpreting (Bi-directional/2 Languages)
- MA in Interpreting: British Sign Language

Please consult our Alumni and Careers webpage for more examples of careers paths:

<http://www.leeds.ac.uk/cts/en/alumni.htm>

English mother tongue graduates:

- EU, UN and other international organisations (2 passive languages needed)
- GCHQ and MoD
- Higher education institutions
- Charity funds and NGOs
- International projects
- In-house or freelance
- National or EU parliaments
- Diplomatic services

Other EU languages as a mother tongue:

- French, German, Italian and Spanish mother tongue
 - EU institutions
 - In-house language services
 - Tourist boards
 - Higher Education
 - Freelance
 - Subtitling
 - National or EU parliaments

Other EU languages as a mother tongue:

- Greek
 - EU
 - Greek MoD
 - International finance
 - National and EU Archives
 - In-house
 - National or EU parliaments
 - Freelance

Non-EU Languages

- Arabic
 - Red Cross
 - MoD
 - GCHQ
 - Historic Archives
 - Other in-house or freelance positions
- Chinese
 - Many in-house posts
 - Freelance, international organisations
 - Media
 - Chinese government offices
 - Higher Education as lecturers or teaching assistants

Other languages:

- Japanese
 - Many in-house posts with car manufacturers and other multinational organisations (e.g. pharmaceutical companies, cosmetics producers, software companies)
- Russian
 - International commerce and finance (banking, oil companies)
 - International projects and NGOs
 - Markets research

Public Service Interpreting

- Who could you work for as a public service interpreter?
 - Local councils
 - Refugee Council
 - Refugee & Migrant Justice
 - Immigration Advisory Service
 - Home Office - UK Border Agency
 - Tribunal Service
 - Police
 - NHS
 - Agencies
 - Etc.