

TEACHERS' LOUNGE

OPEN DAY

THURSDAY 22 JUNE & FRIDAY 23 JUNE 2017

LAIDLAW LIBRARY

10.00AM

TEACHERS' LOUNGE OPENS

Registration and refreshments will be available in the Weston Room on the ground floor of the Laidlaw Library. This space will be open for networking and refreshments until 3pm and delegates are welcome to drop in and out at any time. Wi-Fi access for the day is also available on request. In addition to the main lounge space facilities, the following break-out sessions are available:

10.30AM – 10.50AM Leeds Outreach update 2017

Educational Engagement staff

Including an overview of our involvement in the National Collaborative Outreach Programme (NCOP)

10.55AM – 11.15AM Degree Apprenticeships – reverse Q & A

Clare Addy, Skills Project Manager, Go Higher West Yorkshire

A discussion led by Clare Addy on key influencers' understanding of Higher Level and Degree apprenticeships. Includes the unique opportunity to contribute suggestions for a new project around school activity and resources.

11.20AM – 11.55AM Student Support – Disability Services

Claire Fleagg, Project Officer, Disability Services, University of Leeds

An overview of the support on offer at the University for disabled students and details of the application process for these students.

12.00PM – 12.35PM Foundation courses and programmes at Leeds

Barbara Kempf, External Liaison Officer, Lifelong Learning Centre

Find out more about our foundation courses and programmes at Leeds and how you can support students in their applications.

All break –out sessions will take place in Teaching Room 1 on the first floor of the Laidlaw Library.

12.40PM – 1.30PM LUNCH

Weston Room – Laidlaw Library

An opportunity for delegates to speak to staff education outreach, scholarships and student support teams. Current students will also be on hand to discuss their experiences.

1.30PM – 3.00PM

The Teachers' Lounge facilities will remain open for networking and relaxation.