Our pick of the UK's best art exhibitions opening this month

Warm and Vibrant

Carlos Nadal: Paintings in Yorkshire Collections (until 20 August) features the late Catalan painter's imaginative takes on the local landscape at the Stanley and Audrey Burton Gallery at University of Leeds. www.leeds.ac.uk/gallery

MOO-DY LANDSCAPES?

The bright brushwork of the late Sir John Arnesby Brown RA features in Falmouth Art Gallery's British Impressionists display (25 June – 10 September). www.falmouthartgallery.com

Rivera runs through it

There's a decidedly Mexican flavour at Pallant House Gallery, Chichester this month. Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera (9 July – 2 October) features iconic paintings by both artists, as well as rarely seen photos taken by Kahlo's father, Guillermo. www.pallant.org.uk

HOMELY SCENES

Expect a typically eccentric take on domestic landscapes in Stanley Spencer and the English Garden (25 June – 2 October) at Compton Verney, Warwickshire. www.comptonverney.org.uk

An unusual perspective

Half a century after his first solo show, surrealist Patrick Hughes returns with 50 Years of Show Business (14 July – 3 September), a retrospective of works at Flowers Galleries, London E2. www.flowersgalleries.com
