

International Symposium

The Agony of Spanish Liberalism: from Revolution to Dictatorship 1914-1923

29-30 June 2007

Leeds Humanities Research Institute
29-31 Clarendon Place (Seminar Room 3)

Friday 29 June: 11.00am-5pm

Javier Moreno Luzón, Madrid Complutense University/Centro de Estudios Políticos y Constitucionales: 'The Restoration Parties, the King and the Fall of the Restoration Regime' (Talk in Spanish)

Alejandro Quiroga, University of Newcastle upon Tyne: 'Nation and Reaction: Spanish Conservative Nationalism and the Restoration Crisis'

Sebastian Balfour, London School of Economics and Political Science: 'The Colonial War and the Making of an Interventionist Army'

Pablo La Porte, Heriot-Watt University: 'The Moroccan Quagmire and the Crisis of Spain's Liberal Regime'

Saturday 30 June: 10am-2.30pm

Francisco Cobo, University of Granada: 'The Red Dawn of the Andalusian Countryside: Peasant Protest during the "Bolshevik Triennium", 1918-1920' (Talk in Spanish)

Francisco J. Romero Salvadó, University of Bristol: "'Si vis pacem para bellum": The Employers' Dirty War, 1919-1923'

Angel Smith, University of Leeds: 'The Lliga Regionalista: From Democratic Reform to the "Military Parenthesis", 1917-1923'

Organised by the Department of Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies, University of Leeds

In collaboration with the Department of Hispanic, Portuguese and Latin American Studies, University of Bristol

Sponsored by the Leeds Humanities Research Institute, Leeds School of Modern Language and Cultures and Leeds-Manchester Instituto Cervantes

For further details contact: Angel Smith. E-mail: a.k.a.smith@leeds.ac.uk
For the full programme and registration details, please visit:
www.leeds.ac.uk/spanport/news.htm

