Dear

Freedom of Information Response (Our Ref: K/20/223)

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 13 June 2020, reference K/20/223.

Your request read:

- “Any and all job listings made via careers communications (websites, emails, etc.) run by the university, offering roles with the Hong Kong Police Force, in the period from the 1st January 2019 to the present, as originally published
- A copy of your terms or internal decision-making processes on which job listings are to be hosted on your website - how do you decide if an prospective employer's listing should be approved?
- Details of any financial relationships between Hong Kong Police Force and the university - did the university receive money from the HKPF or a group working on its behalf in return for hosting the job listing?”

The University of Leeds some of this information. For your convenience we have responded to each of your questions in turn below.

Any and all job listings made via careers communications (websites, emails, etc.) run by the university, offering roles with the Hong Kong Police Force, in the period from the 1st January 2019 to the present, as originally published

None

A copy of your terms or internal decision-making processes on which job listings are to be hosted on your website – how do you decide if an prospective employer's listing should be approved?

The University does not purport to endorse any of the roles advertised through the system. It is made clear that we cannot vouch for employers. We do however deny the promotion of unpaid work.

Details of any financial relationships between Hong Kong Police Force and the university - did the university receive money from the HKPF or a group working on its behalf in return for hosting the job listing?

Not applicable.
We hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions about this email, however, please do not hesitate to contact us on foi@leeds.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you can request an Internal Review. Requests for Internal Review should be made in writing using the following contact information:

Post: Mr D Wardle
Deputy Secretary
The University of Leeds
Leeds
LS2 9JT

Email: foi@leeds.ac.uk

Requests for Internal Review should be submitted within 40 working days of receiving the University’s response to your request. Further information about how the University manages Freedom of Information requests and about our complaints procedure is also available on our website (www.leeds.ac.uk).

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review/complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Kind regards
