Dear

Freedom of Information Response (Our Ref: K/20/377)

Your request read:

“I am writing regarding the admission policy and selection process for home UK applicants to the undergraduate BDS Dentistry (A200). Please provide the following information for the 2019-2020 admission cycle:
1. Number of applicants
2. Number of applicants who applied with achieved A-level grades
3. Number of applicants who were invited for interview
4. Number of applicants who received an offer
5. Number of applicants with achieved grades who received an offer
6. Number of places for UK students
7. What was the BMAT cut-off score to be invited for interview
8. Does this cut off differ if you apply with achieved grades and how does it differ?
9. How each component of UCAS (GCSE grades, A-level predicted grades, personal statement, reference) and BMAT score are used or contribute to give overall score for invitation of applicants for interview?
10. How each component of UCAS (GCSE grades, A-level predicted grades, personal statement, and reference), BMAT score and the interview score are used or contribute to make an offer?
11. Does any of the above differ if you are an applicant who has achieved grades higher than the minimum required.”

The University of Leeds does not hold this information. We are not able to distinguish between Home (UK) students and EU students. As such, we cannot provide answers which are specific to Home (UK) students only.

If you were to reframe your request, instead requesting information for all Home/EU students, we will be able to provide some information.

We hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions about this email, however, please do not hesitate to contact us on foi@leeds.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you can request an Internal Review. Requests for Internal Review should be made in writing using the following contact information:
Requests for Internal Review should be submitted within 40 working days of receiving the University’s response to your request. Further information about how the University manages Freedom of Information requests and about our complaints procedure is also available on our website (www.leeds.ac.uk).

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review/complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Kind regards
