Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 15 February 2021, reference K/21/092.

Your request read:

“In 2018, 2019 and 2020 up to present at this University:
• in each of these years, how many students requested to change their gender on official student records held by the University
• in each of these years, how many students contacted University services for help with gender-transitioning and gender dysphoria.”

The University of Leeds holds some of this information.

The information we hold is organised by academic, rather than calendar years. Please find the information we hold in relation to your first question set out in the table below

We do not record any information in relation to part two of your request.

We hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions about this email, however, please do not hesitate to contact us on foi@leeds.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you can request an Internal Review. Requests for Internal Review should be made in writing using the following contact information:

Post: Mr D Wardle
      Deputy Secretary
      The University of Leeds
      Leeds
      LS2 9JT

Email: foi@leeds.ac.uk
Requests for Internal Review should be submitted within 40 working days of receiving the University’s response to your request. Further information about how the University manages Freedom of Information requests and about our complaints procedure is also available on our website (www.leeds.ac.uk).

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review/complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
