Dear

Freedom of Information Response (Our Ref: K/21/382)

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 30 July 2021, reference K/21/382.

Your request read:

“I would greatly appreciate all the information you are able to provide in response to the questions below, regarding the teaching offered at your university:

1. Could you list the disciplines in which you offer work-based learning (i.e. work placements) in both undergraduate and postgraduate taught courses?

2. Could you provide the list of work placement modules that you offer, ideally with placement years in a separate list, to differentiate them from shorter placements?

3. Could you give an indication of the range of assessment methods used in these placement modules, and whether or not they involve university only, university-employer, or employer only?”

The University of Leeds holds this information.

Details of work placements for each course are listed on the course page. You can access course pages via our Courses by Subject webpage. This addresses your first question.

In relation to your second and third questions, please refer to our course modules, which are available via our module catalogues:

- Undergraduate module catalogue
- Taught postgraduate module catalogue

We hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions about this email, however, please do not hesitate to contact us on foirequests@leeds.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you can request an Internal Review. Requests for Internal Review should be made in writing using the following contact information:
