Dear

Freedom of Information Response (Our Ref: K/21/389)

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 11 August 2021, reference K/21/389.

Your request read:

“I would like to request the following with regards to A100 medicine applications:

1. In the admission cycles from 2019-2021, how many applicants applied to the medical school?

2. In the admission cycles 2019-2021, how many applicants received interviews from the medical school?

3. In the admission cycles 2019-2021, how many applicants received offers from the medical school?

4. How many places were available for students on the A100 course in the years 2019-2021?

5. How many places will there be available for students who will be applying for the A100 course in the 2022 admissions cycle?

6. How many students will start in 2022 after having deferred entries from the 2021 cycle?”

The University of Leeds holds some of this information. Please find the information we hold in relation to questions one, two, three and four set out in the table below.

*we do not hold information which shows the number of interview offers which were made. As such, this figures demonstrates the number of interviews which were carried out.

The number of medical school places which are available each year is set by the Government. We have not yet received confirmation of the number of places which will be available for 2022 entry but it is our understanding that our quota will return to 278.

Currently 24 students have met the terms of their offer who have requested deferral to 2022.

We hope this information is helpful. If you have any questions about this email, however, please do not hesitate to contact us on foi@leeds.ac.uk

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you can request an Internal Review. Requests for Internal Review should be made in writing using the following contact information:

Post: Mr D Wardle
Deputy Secretary
The University of Leeds
Leeds
LS2 9JT

Email: foi@leeds.ac.uk

Requests for Internal Review should be submitted within 40 working days of receiving the University’s response to your request. Further information about how the University manages Freedom of Information requests and about our complaints procedure is also available on our website (www.leeds.ac.uk).

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review/complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
